

Social Story™

Mandurah Christmas Pageant

Guidelines

A social story™ uses storytelling techniques to explain new experiences and environments. Anyone who is nervous when attending a place or event for the first time may benefit from access to a social story.

We recommend you follow these guidelines.

- Read the social story preferably two weeks in advance of visit.
- If reading to someone, help the person to understand key points.
- Once the visit has taken place, re-read the social story to celebrate achievements.

We are going to the Mandurah Christmas Pageant.

The Christmas pageant will start at 6pm and will run along the Eastern Foreshore south end.

Some of the roads in this area will be closed for the pageant.

There will be lots of people at the pageant.

I will stay close to my trusted adult.

There will be lots of different people and groups to see in the pageant.

There will be colourful floats to look at.

I will stay close to my trusted adult and stay a safe distance away from the vehicles.

There will be music, drums and the sounds of other people having fun.

To help me with the noise, I can bring noise reduction earmuffs or ear plugs.

I might see Santa at the pageant.

I will stay close to my trusted adult as Santa moves through the pageant.

There might be a person handing out sweets.

I will wait my turn. This is a nice thing to do.

After the pageant end, I may choose to stay and enjoy the performances on the stage on the Eastern Foreshore.

I might like to explore other festive activities that are available on the Eastern Foreshore.

There is a Changing Places facility, a unisex accessible toilet, male and female toilets next to the Mandurah Visitors Centre.

A Changing Places facility has an adult change table, a ceiling hoist, shower and an accessible toilet.

There will be some road closures around this area for the pageant.

I might have fun at the Mandurah Christmas pageant.
